MEDIA RELEASE

FEDERATION TO RECEIVE ADDITIONAL FUNDING

Today the Premier of NSW, The Hon Gladys Berejiklian MP has announced a major funding boost for Community Language Schools.

“We welcome these new and innovative initiatives that the NSW Government has announced today. Our sector will improve enormously and will be second to none.” says Albert Vella OAM, President of NSW Federation of Community Language Schools Inc.

“This is a historic announcement for Community Language Schools and I would like to thank the NSW Government, especially our Premier Gladys Berejiklian, Minister Dominello, Minister Williams and the Education Department for their long term vision to our schools, students, teachers and the Federation.

These initiatives not only will improve the teaching of languages but also it will bring more economic benefits to NSW and indeed across Australia.” says Michael Christodoulou AM, Executive Officer NSW Federation of Community Language Schools Inc.

The Federation will receive $1.2 million funding for the next 3 years.
